

We take this opportunity to welcome you as a Dollface Fashion Australia client.

Dollface national fashion agency, launched by industry insider Annette Verrusio, specialises in supporting and promoting emerging and established Australian designers. Dollface represents an eclectic collection of labels including Nookie Boutique, Nookie Beach, Sewn, Bec & Bridge, Rodeo Show, Children of the Sun, Bahamonde, Barbarella, Lot 11, Mother Maria, Mani Quin, Zoe Mou, Sunday, Children of the Sun, Ivy and Gracious Me.

Dollface was born in 2004 when Annette recognised minimal support of the new generation of burgeoning Australian fashion talent. After 14 years experience in the fashion industry working with some of Australia's top designers including Tim O'Connor, Wayne Cooper, Sally Smith and Rebecca Davies, she used her wealth of retail, wholesale, marketing, PR and account management skills to launch Dollface.

Due to Annette's unrivaled dedication and on going commitment to her clients, many of the Dollface labels are seeing national and international success and recognition.

Dollface employs a passionate and creative team covering all areas of fashion; brand building, marketing, national sales, brand and boutique launches and event management.

In July 2006 Paris Texas was born as the retail side to compliment Dollface. This provides the perfect platform for young designers to stock their collections in a boutique. Paris Texas is conveniently located at 729 Bourke St Surry Hills (corner Bourke and Cleveland streets.) Paris Texas and Dollface will forever support Australia's young fashion designers.

We look forward to building a strong and successful relationship together.
For all enquires, please feel free to contact either Annette or Jade at any time.

Kindest Regards,
Annette, Dollface Fashion Australia.
